Public Transit in Rhode Island: A Conversation with RIPTA

All Rhode Islanders need a robust public transit system:

- those who depend on it,
- those who would use it if only.....,
- and those concerned about pollution, traffic, roads, and accessibility.

Come discuss the state of the state's public transit, and ways to improve it.

Guest: Cristy Raposo Perry,
Deputy Chief of Communications for RIPTA

Wednesday, February 25, 6:30-7:30 p.m.
Rochambeau Library
708 Hope Street, Providence
